In the event of a disruption that prevents the eligible legislative body from broadcasting the meeting to members of the public using the call-in option or internet-based service option, or in the event of a disruption within the eligible legislative body's control that prevents members of the public from offering public comments using the call-in option or internet-based service option, the eligible legislative body shall take no further action on items appearing on the meeting agenda until public access to the meeting via the call-in option or internet-based service option is restored. Actions taken on agenda items during a disruption that prevents the eligible legislative body from broadcasting the meeting may be challenged pursuant to Section 54960.1. California Government Code Section 54953.8(b)(3).

The legislative body shall not require public comments to be submitted in advance of the meeting and shall provide an opportunity for the public to address the legislative body and offer comments in real time. California Government Code Section 54953.8(b)(4).

Notwithstanding Section 54953.3, an individual desiring to provide public comment through the use of an internet website, or other online platform, not under the control of eligible legislative body, that requires registration to log in to a teleconference may be required to register as required by the third-party internet website or online platform to participate. California Government Code Section 54953.8(b)(5).

A legislative body that provides a time public comment period for each agenda item shall not close the public comment period for the agenda item, or the opportunity to register, pursuant to paragraph (5), to provide public comment until that timed public comment period has elapsed. California Government Code Section 54953.8(b)(6)(A).

A legislative body that does not provide a time public comment period, but takes public comment separately on each agenda item, shall allow a reasonable amount of time per agenda item to allow public members the opportunity to provide public comment, including time for members of the public to register pursuant to paragraph (5), or otherwise to be recognized for the purpose of providing public comment. California Government Code Section 54953.8(b)(6)(B).

Public Input: Comments from the public on agenda items will be heard only when the respective item is being considered. Comments from the public on other matters not appearing on the agenda that are within the Board's jurisdiction will be heard during the General Public Comment period. Please note that under the Brown Act, the Board is prevented from acting on a matter that you bring to its attention during the General Public Comment period; however, an issue raised by a member of the public may become the subject of a future Board meeting. Public comment is limited to two minutes per speaker, unless adjusted by the presiding officer of the committee.

2. Comments from the Chair: Thanked Kim and Brenda for volunteering to present couple of interesting topics on safety and health.
3. Review and Approve Minutes of September 17, 2025: The minutes were approved as amended.
4. Presentation and Discussion on Motorized Bikes Safety: Brenda mentioned that most of the information is from Chat GPT. She also spoke with the GM of Spoke 'N Wheels. She some young kids (12-14 year olds) riding there motorizes bikes on Platt without wearing helmets. The important thing for motor vehicles is be aware of the kids on the motorized bikes, keep a safe distance and go around them. They pop in and out of sidewalks. The motorized bikes are quiet and, therefore, it is important to be aware of them. Parents need to discuss safety topics with their children There si a lot of information available on-line.
5. Presentation and Discussion of Type I and II Diabetes: Kim mentioned that majority of the doctors in the hospitals are not aware of Type I diabetes. Kim described the process of how a human body produces and uses the insulin. Type I diabetes is auto immune versus Type II is hereditary and can be controlled with diet and exercise. Kim discussed the effects of high and low blood sugar.
6. General Public Comments: There were no Public Comments.
7. Topic Suggestions for Future Meetings: Brenda mentioned presenting a podcast on exercises for 60 and older/
8. The meeting was adjourned at 7:19 PM.
